RENO EVENING GAZETTE.

ENO. WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA

SATURDAY..... OCTOBER 12, 1877.

A Suggestion.

Our next issue will be on the first day of the Fair, and we think it right to give a word of caution to our readers. This society which claims its home in Washoe county does not belong to us, but expects to derive its usefulness and support from the entire State. It should be to us a pleasant as well as profitable task to entertain all who visit us, and in this spirit we must induce the representatives of the various counties to realize that this annual exhibition of the best is a means for the improvement of the State, an aid to every honest toiler within its limits. We must say to these people that this enterprise which was built up and maintained by the energy of a few men, is now a State institution, a vehicle provided for the use of every citizen in improving his interests. We must welcome them to an active interest and participation in its affairs, and show how Nevada can well afford the support of an institution which is common to all states in the Union. We must show that a selfish pride is joined to a laudable desire to see the State give an adequate annual expression to its prosperity and growth. And first and before all, we must show that Reno is not only an enterprising but an honest town, and provides value received in exchange for the money which the yearly exhibition brings her. A word to the wise is sufficient.

The Gazette's New Volume and its Friends.

The Reno Evening Gazette entered on its fourth volume last Monday. The editor "thanks the good people of the county for the encouragement and approval which they have shown for his work, and hopes that he may remain a factor in building up the prosperity which their enterprise so richly deserves." The Gazette is a sparkling, lively little sheet, one of the best on our exchange list, and is worthy of all the success which the proprietor can desire, or the News in its hearty congratulations can wish it.

G. H. News.

The Reno Gazette is four volumes old and is doing nicely. It is a vivacious print and deserves to succeed. —Carson Appeal.

The Reno Gazette has entered on volume four. It is a spicy sheet, and edited with ability. Long may it live. —Carson Tribune.

The Reno Gazette has entered upon its fourth volume, and is no longer an experiment. It has demonstrated that two papers can live, flourish and prosper in Reno. The Gazette is a well-edited, bright paper, and is quite an acquisition to the town and county whose interests and resources it so ably represents to the world. —R. R. Reveille.

The Reno Gazette has entered upon its fourth volume. The Gazette is ably edited, very fixed in its opinions, and is, we are glad to say, growing better with age. It is a good paper now, and we believe will improve with years. Like the Journal, it watches closely the interests of Washoe county, and its efforts are rewarded by a liberal support. —Enterprise.

That sterling paper, the Reno Evening Gazette, has entered upon its fourth volume and we wish it all possible success. It is ably edited and a credit to Washoe county. —Footlight.

The Reno Gazette has entered upon its fourth volume. It is the leading Reform journal of Washoe county. —Eureka Sentinel.

ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN RUSSIA AND SERVIA COMPLETED.—A Belgrade special says that the Servian Cabinet has unanimously and definitely agreed upon terms of agreement with Russia. This probably refers to the agreement concerning the subsidy of a million roubles to be made to Servia monthly from the time her army is sent to the frontier.

Troops are continually marching to the frontier ready for any offensive movement on the part of the Turks.

"Trust no future," says the poet; "trust no man," says the Shylock; "trust no woman," says the cynic; "in God we trust twenty-five cents," says the great United States Government. —Sacramento Bee.

GOVERNMENT TIMBER STOLEN.—A Washington date of October 12 says: A special agent of the Land Office, who has been prosecuting his inquiries in Washington Territory and on the northern coast of California, has made a report to Commissioner Williamson, under date of San Francisco, September 20th, upon the spoliation of timber lands on the Pacific Coast. The losses sustained by the government are placed by this agent at from fifty to sixty millions of dollars. He expresses his decided opinion that suits can be successfully instituted against one of the most wealthy and distinguished lumber dealers on the Coast, to say nothing of the criminal prosecutions to which offenders are liable. He says "the depredations in and around Puget Sound, Washington Territory, will aggregate $40,000,000 since 1855. Those at the mouth of the Mendocino, Noyo and Little rivers, and at Cuffey's Cove and all points on the coast north of Point Arenas, will sum up not less than $20,000,000 in the same period. These are all within my personal knowledge."

RANDALL'S ELECTION SURE.—A Washington date of Oct. 12 says: The contest for the Speakership is practically at an end. Mr. Randall's strength has increased to such a degree that his nomination is now generally conceded on the first ballot. The Clerkship will very probably go to Caldwell, of Alabama, but no prediction can be made as to the result of the fight for Doorkeeper. The tone of the speeches last night at the meeting to celebrate the Democratic victory in Ohio is a forecast of the policy of the Democratic majority in the House this winter. They indicate the fixed purpose of the Democracy to ring the changes of fraud in the 8 to 7 Commission. Some of the speeches made by Southern Democrats were quite bitter, and certainly do not indicate any disposition on the part of that class of politicians to unite with the moderate Republicans in sustaining the Administration.

FOR THE FAIR.—People in town are making preparations for the Reno Fair—serving up dimes, you know, and going on two glasses of lager less than generally. From all appearances there will be a goodly attendance of the Carson people, and it is proper that such be the case, for our people are too slow to get up one, and are not the Renoites brothers? Yea, verily, and loved ones, too.—Carson Tribune.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Continental Oil and Transportation Company.

Mr. W. T. Kirkpatrick, Managing Agent of the above company for the State of Nevada, has commenced the erection of suitable buildings for the accommodation of the company's business in this State. The establishment at Reno will be a large depot or distributing point for oils which the company prepares and transports to market. The principal supply of oil comes from Cleveland, Ohio, and the company has established stations at Denver, Cheyenne, Salt Lake and San Francisco. Mr. Kirkpatrick has been entrusted with the business in Nevada, and by the building of a depot in Reno completes the line; giving the company a distributing point in each State between the home office at Council Bluff and San Francisco. The company refines and prepares for market every variety of burning and lubricating oil. This is shipped to the company depots in large tanks, and on the company cars. Arrived at the distributing point, the oil is filled into barrels, and in marketable form is carried to the consumer. The depot for Reno will be located at the west end of town on a side track, and Mr. Kirkpatrick rightly estimates that the Nevada trade will be worth securing. Mr. J. E. Blake, General Superintendent of the company, will be here in a few days. We said some time ago that Reno was the natural point of distribution for a large and wealthy section of this country, and events seem to bear us out.

THE RIGHT MAN.—In our opinion Joe Coleman is proving himself the boss restauranteur in his improvements made and projected. Mr. Coleman has divided his dining room and will this evening have an apartment fitted for the use of ladies and gentlemen who may desire an early breakfast at the track, as well as those who patronize him during the fair. These apartments are to be lined and made pleasant to the eye, and special efforts will be made to give everybody value received. The genial "Watty" is in charge, and will see that everything runs agreeably, while the corps of waiters and helpers which Coleman has secured is ample for every purpose. Visitors may use the restaurant at the fair grounds this year with every assurance of good fare and attendance. Coleman says "there is always a point in running these things right," and the same is entirely correct. We hear of a large number who will go out in the morning, see the morning exercise and breakfast with "Watty."

DISTRICT COURT.—District Court will be in session during fair week only one-half of each day, viz., in the forenoon. To-day the case of Foulks vs. Rhodes is being tried, and hopes are fondly entertained that it will be closed. Both attorneys are now excited and are rushing the case. Boardman wants a protracted trial, and provokes Haydon that he should be so tedious in conducting the case. Judge Wright is anxious to have the trial last through the term of court, for the evidence is of such a character that no man can hear it without having his entire attention drawn to it. The Court should censure Boardman for consuming so much time in slow and often unnecessary questions; also for being late, as there is considerable expense attached to long cases in a District Court.

DRAMATIC COMPANY.—J. Hoeg, advanced agent of J. M. Ward's Dramatic Company, was with us to-day and has engaged Smith's Academy of Music, for Thursday, Saturday and Sunday evenings of next week. The full strength of the company will be applied in the rendering of choice programmes.

THE POWER OF THE PRESS.—The other day we openly insulted that old house which stood in Plaza street, a bar to sight and travel. It moved about uncasily under the slight, and yesterday walked right out of sight. The press is the palladium etc.

EVERGREENS.—The buildings which are intended for the use of guests at our fair will be nicely decorated with evergreens. A car load of evergreens arrived yesterday for that purpose.

The National Gold Medal was awarded to Bradley & Rulofson for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna Medal for the best in the world.

Montgomery Street, San Francisco.

Jottings.

The house that adorned Plaza street for some time was to-day placed in position back of the Ocean Spray Saloon.

As you pass Prescott's store glance at the display of elegant bonnets, hats, cloaks, trimmings, etc., made by Mrs. Prescott.

Mr. A. H. Manning returned from San Francisco this morning. He brings a several thousand dollar stock of general merchandise.

Messrs. Jas. Toombs & Co. have just received a large stock of groceries, provisions and general merchandise. They also have several brands of fine cigars. You know the rest.

We see by the Carson Tribune, that Carson has a fine lot of clergymen. One of them tipped his hat a few days since to two demimonde who returned the compliments with bewitching smiles, and now comes the good Deacon with an apology and says the Divine in question suffers from myopia.

The public schools have vacation during next week. If the weather should be unpleasant the youngsters will have "lots a fun."

To-morrow the Congressional Society meet and take Drahns. The Rev. gentleman is from Napa City Cal. and is said to be a Christian gentleman and good sermonizer.

Cosmopolitan Mining Co. yesterday afternoon levied an assessment of 25 cents per share.

Mr. D. H. Jones was in town last evening. He says that the first storm will suspend operations at Mackay & Fair's. He will not reside in Reno, as at first reported, but will make his home in Virginia city and San Francisco.

Mr. Edward Blennerhassett, of Gold Hill, is with us. He says that business is improving in and about the Comstock, owing principally to the fact that a number of the smaller mines have again commenced operations, thus giving employment to many idle men.

Mrs. Stephens will deliver a free lecture to-morrow evening at the Reno Opera House. Lecture will commence at 7:30.

The lecture of Mrs. Stephens last evening drew a small but appreciative audience.

A Lecture will be given on to-morrow evening at the Baptist Church, by the Pastor. Subject: "The importance of the bible in public schools, its influence on national life etc."

The McGinley troupe give one of their star entertainment this evening at the Opera House. If anyone thinks Bob McGinley is not first class as a clod dancer, he is off. The manager is the champion of Nevada. Attach yourself to 15 yards of calico and proceed at the hour of 7:30 to the scene of comedy and real amusement.

Col. Younger's fine short-horned stock, 11 head, arrived this morning and were taken to the Fair grounds.

Harry Bernard will arrive to-morrow morning from Sacramento and will place his six carriages in position in the pavilion.

Owing to the crowded condition of our columns the market report is necessarily omitted to-day. It will appear in our weekly.

Chapman, owner of the stage line between here and Quincey, will arrive this evening from the north with his coaches and horses. He will run accommodation coaches between town and the track during Fair week.

If anyone wants to buy a dog or a poor trunk full of old dresses, skirts, etc., he can be accommodated by calling at the office of Justice R. The aforesaid articles were attached at the instance of Tom Stephens of Virginia city.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The Sunday evening services at the Methodist Church will begin at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30 as heretofore. Subject for the morning service to-morrow, "The Patural Government of God." For the evening service, "Pulpit Wit and Humor."

PLEASE CORRECT.—There is ample time each Saturday after the issue of our daily for a correction of our market report. Merchants or others interested are invited to amend the same.

Take Your Choice.—A new arrival of the following brands of Imported Cigars at E. Meyer's, corner Commercial Row and Virginia street: Villar y Villar.

La Carolina Regalia de Cal, Bouquet Imperial, (grande), Margarita Extra Fina, Flor de Cuba, Real y Valde, Bouquet Chico, La Reserva Princessa.

The Fair.

We have devoted some space in our journal endeavoring to show the merit of the enterprise to our many readers, and have endeavored to assist the management in having the attendance large at this coming session, but all this is not worth a "free pass" so we again express our heartfelt gratitude.—Truckee Republican.

There is every probability that the State Agricultural Fair will surpass the former ones by a great deal. Theo. Winters will bring in the famous Mollie McCarthy, and a far larger amount of blooded stock will be on the grounds than last year. Colonel Younger, the famous cattle herder of Napa California, has telegraphed for twelve stalls for his herd of short horned cattle. The demand for stalls having far exceeded the supply, the Managers of the Fair grounds are busy erecting a number of extra ones. The desire to visit the Fair seems to be general, and if the weather proves propitious there will be a large crowd from abroad as well as from home.—Carson Tribune.

It is thought that the greater part of the Comstock will visit Reno during the State Fair Exchange.

A REMINDER.—Last night was the fifteenth anniversary of M. J. Smith's marriage—M. stands for Melanchthon—and in default of a regular programme a few of M. J.'s friends undertook to commemorate. There were a few pieces missing from the band, but wine and cake made the musicians to rejoice, and a very pleasant reception was given to the serenaders. We did not see any of the affair, but take pleasure in wishing Smith and his estimable lady a golden wedding day, and numerous friends to help celebrate it.

THEATRE.—The McGinley Sisters will appear this evening at the Reno Opera House, in the popular play of "Perfection or the Maid of Munster." The performance will be replete with song and dances, and conclude with the laughable farce "Domestic Happiness." Admission, 50 cents; reserved seats, 75 cents.

FOR THE FAIR.—We shall print in the pavilion during Fair week a small 12-column paper, containing all matters of interest pertaining to the day's programme. The issue will be upon tinted book paper and is mainly for the convenience of the directors in making announcements for provisions for each succeeding day.

AND YET ANOTHER.—The first shall be last and the last shall be first &c. That means that M. J. Smith offers for the best three-year old trotter at our State Fair a sulky, value $175. Smith is a "sulky sharp," and a good one. If we ever used slang we should say "bully for Smith."

PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.—We are glad to acknowledge the receipt of a large and select lot of public documents fresh from the printer at Washington. Among the number are several volumes which are very valuable, and the sendee, Senator John P. Jones will please consider us grateful for his kindness.

ROOMS WANTED.—Parties having rooms to rent will find it advantageous to leave their addresses at this office. We have used several for that purpose to-day, and doubt not that the demand will increase greatly to-morrow.

Great Liquidation sale of Millinery and Dry Goods now on at L. M. Chase's, Virginia street, east side. 10-12f

PROMISING.—Steve Ford has a young bay at the track, which gives promise of speed in the future. We have forgotten his pedigree, but Steve will show him for what he is worth at the track.

Shawls, Sacques—ladies, misses and Infants' wear—for cast at L. M. Chase's.

FINE TWO YEAR OLD.—Hammond and Wilson have a youngster at the track sired by Borbon, who will raise the standard pretty high for the two-year old premium.

LADIES' ATTENTION.—During next Friday and Saturday Miss Brown and Miss Harney will make a grand display of their new stock of French pattern bonnets, hats and stylish millinery goods. This exhibition of the choicer, most beautiful, and newest styles of bonnets, hats and general millinery goods, will, we are sure, be noted by the ladies of Reno and vicinity. Be on hand, ladies, on the opening day. Store on Virginia Street, opposite Grey & Isaacs. 10-22d

The best of accommodations are offered to travellers. Also the El Dorado Saloon, opposite the hotel, where the pleasure seeker will find shooting galleries, ten pin alleys, billiard table and cards. The El Dorado has been arranged for the comfort of visitors and the best of wines, liquors and cigars are kept constantly on hand. If you are looking for a quiet and comfortable place in which to pass an hour, go to the El Dorado and good attention is guaranteed. 9-27f
